Special Issue Call for Papers

Memory and awareness in anesthesia: the science of consciousness

The British Journal of Anaesthesia is pleased to extend the submission period for the publication of a special issue on memory, awareness and the science of consciousness to coincide with MAA11, the 11th International Symposium on Memory and Awareness in Anesthesia to be held in Prato, Italy, 6-7 June 2022 (maa11.org). The deadline for submissions is now 1 July 2022 with anticipated publication in 2022.

Please submit manuscripts for peer review, including original clinical and laboratory research, review articles, editorials and correspondence to <https://www.editorialmanager.com/bja/default1.aspx>, indicating in your cover letter that the submission is for the Memory and Awareness Special Issue. Please address any queries to bjaj@med.cornell.edu.
