

Updated USPSTF screening guidelines may reduce lung cancer deaths.

Title: Updated USPSTF screening guidelines may reduce lung cancer deaths.

Publication year: 2021

Journal: The Journal of family practice

Authors: Madigan Family Medicine Residency, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA.

Society: U.S. Preventive Services Task Force

Origin country: United States

Target countries: United States

DOI: 10.12788/jfp.0257

PMID: 34818167

Source: <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/34818167/>

J Fam Pract J Fam Pract 1587 jfp 7502590 The Journal of Family Practice 0094-3509 1533-7294
Quadrant HealthCom Inc. PMC8619807 PMC8619807.1 8619807 8619807 34818167 10.12788/jfp.0257 0700347 1 Journal Article Updated USPSTF screening guidelines may reduce lung cancer deaths Marshall Robert C. MPH, MISM, FAAFP, FAMIA Tiglao Samuel Miguel DO, FAAFP Thiel Derrick MD Madigan Family Medicine Residency, Joint Base Lewis-McChord, WA
Lyon Corey DO Deputy Editor University of Colorado, Family Medicine Residency, Denver 9 2021
70 7 394497 347 349 01 09 2021 26 11 2021 17 08 2024 Copyright © 2021. The Family Physicians Inquiries Network. All rights reserved. 2021 By nearly doubling the number of patients eligible for screening, as many as 60,000 US lives may be saved—but concerns may limit acceptance.